

Bill Walmsley

Bill Walmsley graduated from Sudlersville High School in 1964 and went on to earn a BS in Agriculture from Maryland State College in 1968. Following his education, Walmsley served in the Army and is a Vietnam veteran, serving from 1968 to 1970.

In his professional career, he notably worked at the USDA Farmers Home Administration, later known as the Farm Service Agency, where he served as the Chief of the Farm Loan Program for Maryland and Delaware. In this role, he supervised staff and oversaw the entire loan program, managing a portfolio of $175 million.

After retiring from this position, Walmsley accepted a role at Centerville National Bank as a Business Development Officer and Agricultural Loan Representative. He served in this capacity for nine years before entering full retirement.

Throughout his life, Walmsley has been an active member of various county and state organizations, often holding leadership positions. Additionally, he is deeply involved in the operation of his farm near Sudlersville and, along with his wife, owned and operated Pride and Joy in Chestertown for 25 years.
